

Australian Government
Royal Australian Mint

We are proud to work with the Royal Scandinavian Mint as an approved distributor of Australian numismatic products. The RSA has a strong commitment to professionalism and dedication to service and quality. These are values that are important to the Royal Australian Mint and customers alike.

Congratulations again and all the best for your future success. We look forward to a continued relationship that will provide outstanding products and real benefits to the numismatic community in North America.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'TF', with a long, thin vertical stroke extending downwards from the bottom of the signature.

Thomas Firth
Director, Marketing
Royal Australian Mint